

Continued from Page One.

affair was informal and arranged to bring together a number of Mr. Bone's personal friends.

Those at the luncheon were Messrs. Scott C. Bone, David J. Kaufman, Milton Allen, Edward J. Stollwag, George E. Fleming, Daniel Fraser, Sumner Curtis, Leon Tobriner, Ralph Lee, E. C. Graham, D. B. Porter, Commissioner Rudolph J. H. Small, Dr. Henry Kaufman, J. P. Herrmann, Philip Roman, Simon Nye, John Joy Edson, Clarence Archibald, Charles Thompson and J. Harry Cunningham.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnheim, who were recently married in Jacksonville, have returned to their new home in Takboro, N. C. after a tour throughout the North.

Miss Bertha Halle has returned to her home in Baltimore, after spending several days in Washington with Miss Hortense Berylwald.

Mr. Julian Hillman left Washington the first part of the week for the University of Pennsylvania, after a short visit to his parents in Belmont Street.

To-morrow the managers of the Social Settlement Neighborhood House will give for one day an exhibition of the latest novelties from Paris. These comprise sets of lace, antique stuffs, wall coverings, portieres, and lamp screens. There will be also unique French "motto" curtains in shadow embroidery, on batiste, and the celebrated hand-dyed scarfs for gowns. Tea gowns and dainty breakfast caps can be made to order, as well as hand-woven rugs to match rooms.

The ladies of the board of Neighborhood House Industrial department, Messrs. Hennick, Mrs. J. C. Fremont, Mrs. L. W. Page, Mrs. A. Hopkins, Mrs. George H. Chase, Miss Slobert, and Miss Gillett, will undoubtedly make the exhibit a success, as their settlement work is almost a pioneer of its class in this city and have many and influential friends in society.

Mr. Gerald Grosper, who spent several days in the city with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Grosper, has returned to the University of Pennsylvania, where he is a student.

Miss Rosine Schoen, of Baltimore, is spending several days in town the guest of Miss Lillian Burnstein.

The marriage is announced of Mr. Frank Simon and Miss Cora Lee Edwards, of Westmoreland County, Pa. The wedding took place at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Philip E. Riesel, cousin of the bride, at 419 Georgia Avenue Northwest, and was attended only by relatives of the bride and bridegroom. The bride was attired in a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth and white heaver hat and carried a bouquet of lilacs of the valley and violets. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mollie Edwards, who wore pink mull, and the bridegroom by Mr. M. L. Hill, cousin of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Simon left Washington for their new home near Warsaw, Va. The bride is a descendant of the Robert E. Lee of Virginia, and the Edwards and Simon families are among the most prominent residents of that State.

Mrs. I. Grosper has returned to the city after an extended trip to Philadelphia, Atlantic City, and New York.

Mrs. Gross, of Philadelphia, is spending several weeks in the city with her sister, Mrs. Kaufman.

The beautiful display of mountain crafts at the headquarters of the Southern Industrial Educational Association in the Southern Building has attracted many visitors during the special sale this past week.

Another consignment of baskets, weavings, and hand-carved trays will be on exhibition for Christmas, and many unique gifts can be seen made by the mountain people.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Goodman and Mrs. Julius Gutman, of Baltimore, have returned to their homes after a short visit to friends in the city.

Mr. Lawrence Heller has returned to the University of Pennsylvania after a short visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Heller, in Thirteenth Street.

Residents of Washington, Jacksonville, and Atlanta are interested in the approaching marriage of Miss Eugenia Walker, of Georgia, and Mr. Douglas Storer, of this city. The wedding takes place in Atlanta, Ga., on the night of December 11, at the North Avenue Presbyterian Church, with a large reception at the house following the church ceremony.

Miss Amanda Walker, only sister of the bride-elect, will be her maid of honor.

Miss Walker is a daughter of the late Mr. Joseph Amint Walker, of Savannah and Atlanta, and Mr. Storer is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Storer, of Washington, formerly of Jacksonville.

Mrs. S. Bernstein, of California, and Mrs. Myer Gruber, of Baltimore, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Kohner, left for Baltimore the first part of the week.

Mrs. Phil King and son, Philip, Jr., have returned to the city after spending several weeks in New York with Mrs. King's mother, Mrs. H. Harris.

In the interest of the Housekeepers' Alliance, a lunch and sale of Porto Rican embroidery and other fancy articles will be held on Monday, December 9, from 12:30 to 5 p. m. at the home of Mrs. A. P. Clark, Jr., 1702 Lanier Place. Those assisting with the sale are Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Calisher returned during the week to the city after a two weeks' visit to Jacksonville, Fla., and surrounding cities.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Walker, of McKeesport, Pa., formally announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lena Frances Walker, to Dr. David Polnick McCune, also of McKeesport. The wedding will take place in January. Miss Walker attended Washington College, at Washington, D. C., and Dr. McCune is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania.

Capt. John R. Edie, U. S. N., and Mrs. Edie have taken an apartment at the Hotel Powhatan.

Miss Beatrice Kalmus, of New York, is the guest of friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bendheim have left the city to make an extended trip throughout the South, to be gone about four weeks.

The alumni of the Theta Kappa Phi Society of Central High School held their annual banquet and reunion in the white room of the Hotel Powhatan. The toasts were rendered by Misses North Pepper, Audrey Johnson, Mar-

MRS. HOKE SMITH.
Wife of Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia.

Harvey W. Wiley, president of the alliance, Mrs. A. P. Clark, Jr., Miss Ellen Vinton, Mrs. W. D. Bishop, and other members of the organization.

Washingtonians are taking a deep interest in the concert which Mrs. Edson Bradley is giving at her residence on Thursday evening for the benefit of the Associated Works of Mercy. From present appearances it promises to be a great success in every way, as the demand for seats is very large. The Kuebler quartet will render selections and the soloist will be Miss Yvonne de Treville. Tickets can be obtained at Mrs. Bradley's residence, 123 Connecticut Avenue.

Dr. Abraham Simon returned Friday to the city after a short visit to cities in the South.

Representative and Mrs. Towner of Iowa have reached Washington and have taken an apartment at the Farragut for the winter.

Every effort is being made to assure a success for the Edward Everett Hale Memorial benefit, which will take place to-morrow evening at 8:30 o'clock at the New Willard. The programme is both varied and interesting. Mrs. Dorothy Johnston-Baader, the famous harpist of Philadelphia, will be heard, and Mrs. Jean Wilson will give for the first time written especially for her by Mrs. Albert R. Burleson, entitled "An Afternoon Tea in Washington." Mrs. Reed, the popular contralto of the North Baptist Church, will sing to her accompaniment. Mr. Louis Potter will play a solo. And later in the evening Mrs. Wilson, out of compliment to President Taft, will give another monologue called "The Boat Race Between Yale and Harvard."

Among the box holders are Mrs. Charles Broughton Wood, Mrs. Thomas Gale, Mrs. Whitman Cross, Mrs. Ernest Holbert, Mrs. Kent, of California, and Mrs. Woodward. And some of those on the committee are Mrs. Thomas Gale, Mrs. Whitman Cross, the Rev. N. B. Pierce, the postmaster, Mrs. Secretary, Mrs. Mrs. Knox, the German Ambassador's Countess von Bernstorff, Mrs. Wicker, sham, Mrs. Charles J. Bell, Col. and Mrs. Blount, Mrs. Edson Bradley, Senator Burton, Mrs. Charles H. Butler, Mrs. Murray Crane, Mrs. Whitman Cross, Mrs. J. Joy Edson, Dr. James Flint, Mrs. D. U. Fletcher, Thomas M. Gale, Mrs. Marguerite Spalding, Gerry, Mrs. M. C. Hanna, Mrs. Justice Hughes, Mrs. William A. Hammond, Mrs. Cabot Lodge, Mrs. George A. Loud, Mrs. James McKim, Modill McCormick, Rev. and Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Myron Parkers, Mrs. Ernest Roberts, Prof. and Mrs. Spohn, Mrs. Charles Spalding, Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood, Mrs. Henry White, Gen. Woodhull, and Miss Woodhull.

Miss Kathryn E. Schmitts announces the marriage of her sister, Miss Gertrude Marguerite Schmitts, to Mr. Herbert Wells Kidwell. The ceremony took place in Baltimore, Md., on November 25, the Rev. David L. Neely officiating. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and bridegroom were present.

The bride wore a handsome tailored costume, and a becoming picture hat. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the uncle of the bridegroom. After January 24 the bride and bridegroom will reside at Ballston, Va.

Capt. E. G. Schermerhorn, of New York, military secretary to Gov.-elect Sulzer, is spending a few days in Washington at the Hotel Powhatan.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Calisher returned during the week to the city after a two weeks' visit to Jacksonville, Fla., and surrounding cities.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Walker, of McKeesport, Pa., formally announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lena Frances Walker, to Dr. David Polnick McCune, also of McKeesport. The wedding will take place in January. Miss Walker attended Washington College, at Washington, D. C., and Dr. McCune is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania.

Capt. John R. Edie, U. S. N., and Mrs. Edie have taken an apartment at the Hotel Powhatan.

Miss Beatrice Kalmus, of New York, is the guest of friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bendheim have left the city to make an extended trip throughout the South, to be gone about four weeks.

The alumni of the Theta Kappa Phi Society of Central High School held their annual banquet and reunion in the white room of the Hotel Powhatan. The toasts were rendered by Misses North Pepper, Audrey Johnson, Margaret Cummins, Virginia Sylvester, Marguerite Luckett, Pauline Martin and Vera Robertson.

CHEVY CHASE

Dr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Mellett left on Thursday for Isle of Pines.

Mrs. E. Nesbit Wright has returned from a visit to Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilmer Latham announce the engagement of their daughter, May Mabel, to Dr. Early B. Powell, of Charlottesville, Va. The wedding will take place on Saturday, December 21.

Mrs. Clark, of Newland Street, has returned from a visit to Mrs. Keeler, of Spring Valley, N. Y.

The turkey supper given on Thursday evening in the library hall for the benefit of the rectory and of All Saints' Church was a great success.

Mrs. William R. Corby will be hostess on Tuesday afternoon for the Florence Crittenton Circle.

GEORGETOWN.

Mrs. Sankey Bacon, who is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Taggart, will be hostess at a tea on Tuesday from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Kayden, Mrs. Thomas Lane, Mrs. Morris Sheppard, Mrs. Richard Chagert, Miss Lane, Miss Marie Houser, Mrs. Hazel Cox, Miss Nellie Fletcher, and Miss Mavis Tarrant.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wood have opened their home on Q Street for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Brewster are the guests of Mrs. Brewster's sister, Mrs. Fox, in Cincinnati.

Miss Nettie Craig was at home last Thursday very informally.

Miss Edith Orms was hostess at a small dinner on Tuesday evening.

Miss Ruth Gregory, of Emmons, Pa., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Albert Stewart, of Cleveland Park.

Rev. and Mrs. Bushby have taken an apartment at the Stoddard. Mr. Bushby is the new assistant at St. John's Church.

A most interesting lecture was given on Friday evening by Rev. Samuel W. Griffin, D. D., at the Dumbarton Avenue Church. Subject, "The End of the Rainbow."

Mrs. Jessie Reeves, of Stone Cottage, has returned from a visit to Richmond.

Miss Estella Dowler, of New York, who has been the guest of Miss Nettie Craig, has returned to her home.

Miss Josie Ough has returned from New York, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Richard Ough, left upon the return of Miss Ough for a visit to her daughter.

Miss Louise Schafeld gave a Christmas luncheon on Wednesday for the missionary Sunday School class at the Dumbarton Church.

Miss Letta Bogey entertained the Friendship Heights Five Hundred Club on Friday. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Johnston.

A wedding of much interest here took place on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Adbert Bates, in Catonsville, Md., when their daughter, Nellie Grooms Bates, became the wife of Capt. William Edward Reynolds, revenue cutter service. Capt. Reynolds is in command of the Bereng Sea fleet, and is now stationed in San Francisco, where they will be at home after January 1 at the Hotel Bellevue.

Col. Minnikerde and Mr. George McPhail Minnetree were hosts at a dance on Wednesday evening at the Dumbarton Club.

Mr. W. H. Runge formerly of New York, now of Alabama, who has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. King, has left for a visit to his old home before returning South.

Mrs. Cook and Miss Laura Cook have taken an apartment in the Kanawha.

Miss Mary Perry will spend the winter as the guest of Mr. Alexander Stewart.

The young ladies of Madison Hall gave an informal musical recital last Wednesday evening.

Mr. H. Mitchell King, of Alabama, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. King.

The marriage of Dr. John A. Hallman and Miss Anna E. Coker took place on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride, Rev. B. D. Gaw officiating. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. David Coker, and Miss Bessie Coker acted as maid of honor for her sister. Dr. Hallman's best man was Mr. James C. Weaver, of Martinsville, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Hallman have gone on a Southern trip. The wedding march was played by Mrs. J. F. Costello.

Commander and Mrs. Peck have given up their Twenty-ninth Street home and have taken an apartment in the Oakland.

Mrs. Young and sister, Miss Hodges, who have been visiting relatives in Baltimore, have returned home.

The Georgetown Woman Guild has cards out for a Christmas sale to be held at the Kanawha on December 14, 15, and 16. The guests are Mrs. James H. W. Blake, Mrs. James T. Marshall, Mrs. C. Powell Grady, Mrs. Herbert C. Wilkins, Mrs. T. D. Waters, Mrs. Frank R. Bright, Mrs. Robert H. Tenney, Mrs. Anna Middleton, Mrs. Edgar Fyler, Mrs. George P. Du Bose, Miss Anna Abbott, Miss Ella Moore, and Mrs. H. Lee Cox.

Dr. John W. Rosebro, professor of theology at Clarksville, Tenn., died suddenly the past week. Dr. Rosebro is a brother-in-law of Mrs. McKelway, of P Street, and very well known here, having often been associated with the West Street Presbyterian Church during the summer months.

Mrs. William B. Orma has sent out invitations for December 22, when she will introduce Miss Elsie Stuart Orma at their home on Twenty-eighth Street. Mrs. Orma and Miss Orma will be at home Tuesday in January.

Miss Florence Agatha King and Mr. Samuel R. Moore were married on Thursday evening, December 4, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. N. Moore. The house was recently decorated with palms, and only the family of the contracting parties were present. Rev. Father Corbett, R. J. of Holy Trinity Church, in Georgetown, performed the ceremony. To the strains of "Lohengrin's" wedding march, the bride was escorted by her father. She was dressed in white, charming, trimmed with tulle and lace, and she wore a rare old family necklace. Miss Louise King was her sister's maid of honor, and Mr. Robert C. Moore, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Supper was served after the ceremony, and later Mr. and Mrs. Moore left for a trip North. They will live in Charlotte, N. C., where Mr. Moore is engaged in business.

Mrs. Edward John Harvey announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Agnes Doling Harvey, to Dr. Charles Louis Billard. The wedding will take place early in February.

HYATTSVILLE.

A prominent society event was the concert given in Masonic Hall here Tuesday evening for the benefit of Pinkney Memorial Church. The capacity audience was seated by a heavy display of society girls. Miss Elizabeth Naylor and Miss Bowers of Washington, and the Misses Elizabeth Gibson, Elizabeth Gourley and Lucy May, of Hyattsville, Mr. Arthur Dodge, of Philadelphia, Baltimore County, contributed a neat amount to the receipts of the evening by the sale of cut flowers. Following the entertainment, Rev. and Mrs. Henry Thomas served luncheon at the rectory, which was enjoyed by the talent from Washington and Hyattsville. Those from Washington taking part in the programme were Miss Josephine Meek, Master Ross Parent, Mr. Edwin Callow, Mr. Anton Kaaspar, Mr. George O'Connor, Mr. Warren Grimes, and Mr. Claybough. The local talent was Mr. and Mrs. James A. Rogers, the Miss Dorothy I. Galt, Miss Mabel C. Berry, and Miss Angela Vandoren.

Miss Elizabeth M. Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hawkins, of Hyattsville, and Mr. Allen M. Knight, son of Mr. Harry T. Knight, of Riverdale, Prince George's County, gave their parents and friends a distinct shock by suddenly visiting Rockville, Montgomery County, Tuesday evening, the Rev. Mr. White performing the ceremony that made them man and wife during their stay in Maryland's Green. Both the young people are employed in a local mercantile establishment, and their brief honeymoon returned to their duties Thursday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Knight are residing temporarily with the latter's parents here.

A beautiful wedding took place at Bowling Heights at noon Wednesday, when Miss Katherine Hill Bowling, daughter of Mrs. Mittle P. Bowling, became the wife of Mr. Claude Highfield (own sister's cousin), the Fred National Bank of Southern Maryland. The ceremony was performed in the rear parlor, which was prettily decorated with evergreens. Rev. Mr. Paula performed the ceremony, assisted by Father Joseph Cummins, of Baltimore. The maid of honor was Miss May Claggett, and the bridegroom was attended by his brother, Mr. Laurob Green. Six young friends of the bride, Miss Lohengrin's Wedding March. The bride was given in a blue tailor made suit, and wore a large black velvet hat. She carried bride roses, and a reception, the bride and bridegroom went to Washington in an automobile, and later took a train for Niagara and other Northern points.

Mr. James R. McFarland, of Washington, has been visiting his son, Mr. George M. McFarland, Wine Avenue.

LAUREL.

The officials of the Laurel Free Library Association were entertained by Prof. Frank Knowlton at his home in Lafayette Avenue.

Rev. D. H. Martin, a former pastor of Centenary M. E. Church, now of Frost, Md., visited friends in Laurel during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hulse have returned from their wedding trip through the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Phelps have returned from a visit to New York.

Mrs. Awaft has had her sister, Mrs. Freund, of Catonsville, visiting her.

Mr. and Mrs. Scolding Flannery, of Washington, spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Flannery, at their home in Gorman Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Williams, of Baltimore, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Williams during the past week.

Miss Elizabeth Gilbert has returned from a visit to Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Miss Mabel Thawley has returned to Washington after spending Thanksgiving with her parents.

Mrs. Wynnmore, of Washington, was the guest during the week of Mrs. R. H. Gibbons.

Miss Bertha Butler has returned from a visit to Philadelphia.

Capt. Fred C. Billard, of the U. S. M. C., visited friends in Laurel during the week.

Mrs. L. M. Inzerarity gave a reception Friday evening at her home in Lafayette Avenue in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lewis Inzerarity, who is visiting her.

A minstrel show was given Friday night at the Academy of Music for the benefit of the Laurel Free Library.

Miss Corry Bowie, of Prince George County, is the guest of Mrs. James A. Bone.

Mrs. T. A. Johnston is visiting her sister in Stamford, Conn.

Mr. Will Roberts, of Baltimore, was the guest of friends in Laurel during the week.

BROOKLAND.

Miss Theresa A. Henry entertained the Five Hundred Club on Thursday. Quite an innovation from the usual meeting was a surprise, a linen shower, gotten up by the young ladies of the club, for Miss May Grace Henry, sister of the hostess.

Beside the regular club members the others present were Miss Eleanor Smith, house guest of Miss Henry, Mrs. Donald Lundy, Miss Theresa Lane, Miss Katharine Washington, Miss Elizabeth Clark, and Miss Catherine Bowers. Later in the evening supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bentzel, formerly of Winchester, Va., are in their new home, corner of Fourteenth and Monroe Streets.

Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald has returned from a visit to relatives in Staunton, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Branner and family, of New York, who have been the

Philipsborn
THE OUTER GARMENT SHOP
608 TO 614 ELEVENTH STREET.

Greatest Clearance Sale of Gowns, Costumes, Party Frocks and Street Dresses

Ever Held in Washington.
Our Entire Stock, Without Reserve,
Consisting of About 500 Dresses,
Will Be Offered at a Reduction of
ABOUT ONE-THIRD.

Crepe de Meteor Dresses Velvet Dresses Charmeuse Dresses
Voile Dresses Over Silk Corduroy Dresses Eponge Dresses
Serge Dresses Satin Dresses Party and Dancing Frocks

Every smart style of the season included. Many are exclusive copies of imported models not found elsewhere.

Sale at One-third Off Marked Prices.

$15 Dresses.....	$10.00	$40 Dresses.....	$29.50
$22 Dresses.....	$14.50	$55 Dresses.....	$39.50
$28 Dresses.....	$19.75	$75 Dresses.....	$49.50
$35 Dresses.....	$25.00	$85 Dresses.....	$59.50

Continuing the Suit Sale.

You have the complete stock of more than one thousand Suits to choose from—the widest variety of authoritative styles in Washington.

And prices now are $5 to $25 less per suit than before Thanksgiving.

It's our annual stock-adjusting event, and the season's very best chance to secure your winter suit at a substantial saving.

All the Velvets, as well as the Cloth Suits, included.

$19.50 for Suits up to $29.00

$23.50 for Suits up to $34.00

$28.50 for Suits up to $39.00

$33.50 for Suits up to $49.00

$38.50 for Suits up to $54.00

$48.50 for Suits up to $75.00

Continuing the Coat Sale.

The wraps for afternoon and formal wear, including our one-of-a-kind models, are now marked at reduced prices.

A splendid opportunity to secure a handsome wrap for gift purposes or personal use at considerably less than the regular price.

In addition, there are more than 500 Coats for all purposes, marked $5 to $20 less than before "Thanksgiving" prices.

$10.00 for Coats up to $17.50

$14.50 for Coats up to $22.50

$16.75 for Coats up to $25.00

$19.75 for Coats up to $30.00

$25.00 for Coats up to $42.50

house guests of Mr. Drown's sister, Mrs. H. M. Woodward, have returned to their home.

Miss Elisee Burns, who has been the guest of Mrs. McHugh, will leave on Tuesday for her home in Wisconsin.

Mrs. S. H. Julien entertained at dinner last Sunday. Among her guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lundy and Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Henry.

Mrs. A. C. Merriam, of Girard Street, entertained the Bridge Club Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. James McHugh will be the next hostess.

Miss Juliette was hostess on Thursday evening at a small dinner party, given in honor of her guest, Miss Burns. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Bessie Ricker.

Alexandria society news in Main Section.

Plasterers in New York City earned $1 for a 9-hour day in 1881. Now they get $1.40 for eight hours.

If you suffer from Headache try Mustarated Campholine—instant relief; easy to apply; immediately effective. 25c. a jar. At Drug Shops. We give Herald $25,000 constant votes.

Monopolies. Through steel and gas and iron must Divide the world in parts. Yet love controls the strongest trust. The syndicate of hearts.

You're Invited to Enter Our Beauty Contest

You'll want some high-class photos for Xmas giving. Have them made here. Your picture will be entered in the beauty contest. Valuable prizes to winners.

The Harvey Studio,
438 7th St. N. W.
We give voice to The Herald $25,000 contest.